Dunn Tire Hosts Weigh-In, Supports Baby Joe

Buffalo, NY (June 23, 2003) –Monday, June 23rd, two household names of the Buffalo area came together for a one time special event. Dunn Tire proudly hosted the weigh-in for “Baby Joe” Mesi’s upcoming bout with Robert Davis. The weigh in and press conference commenced at 2:30pm at 2150 Union Road, Dunn Tire’s West Seneca location. “Baby Joe” will take on Robert Davis as the main event of “Thunder & Lightning” to be held at HSBC arena Tuesday, June 24th.

“Baby Joe” Mesi (25-0) is a local boxer making some big waves in the world of heavyweight professional boxing. Through his hard work and determination Baby Joe has experienced great success not only in the ring but out in the community as well; he is a strong supporter of the “fight for organ donation”. “Baby Joe” is a class act and it’s no wonder he has become one of Buffalo’s biggest home town heroes.

“Dunn Tire is proud to associate its name with Baby Joe and his team,” stated Randall L. Clark, chairman of the board. “Baby Joe is a fine upstanding member of the community and certainly a great sportsman. We wish him the best of luck in his fight with Davis.”

Dunn Tire is also a local icon of sorts, like “Baby Joe”, Western New York’s premier tire selling retailer is a local success story. Started in 1973, Dunn Tire has grown to include 26 regional store locations and is the 24th largest independent tire retailer in the nation. Having some strong characteristics in common with “Baby Joe” its no wonder that Chairman Randall L. Clark wanted to see Dunn paired up with the boxer.
